Notes:

1. Students applying for exchange at HKDI may select one programme choice with reference to the following programme module list.
2. The study load at HKDI varies by programme and semester. Local full-time students are required to take both art & design modules and general education modules, including Chinese Language, English Language and Student Development. Exchange students typically take only art and design-related modules. The typical study load for exchange students for one semester is 40–60 Qualifications Framework (QF) credits, which is equivalent to 400–600 Notional Learning Hours (NLHs) or approximately 20–30 ECTS credits. The exact credit load may vary by programme and semester. Students who wish to take additional credits may consider enrolling in English language modules, which usually carry 6–10 QF credits, depending on the semester and programme.
3. A summary of the programme curriculum is provided in this appendix for your reference. Your study plan will be finalised and confirmed after an official offer has been issued to you.
4. If you would like to obtain detailed module syllabi, please contact us at hkdi\_exchange@vtc.edu.hk.
5. After signing the learning agreement, any subsequent requests for changes to the programme or module selection will not be accommodated. You are strongly advised to read the module syllabus to check whether it aligns with your interests and study plan.
